IAPMO Meeting – Thursday, January 28, 2010 2009 Codes & Tempering Valves

The 2009 Code changes that are expected to take effect this July 2010 have many changes that affect the plumbing and mechanical construction industry.

Morris Mintz, R & G Sales Manufacturer's Representatives will be the first in a series of speakers discussing how the new codes effect the products we work with. Today's presentation will be the changes effecting tempering values. Mr. Mintz has asked us to ask you to bring your questions and your problems to ask him and if you have any "props" to show your point.

The lunch is $15.00, non-members, company employees and guests are always invited, so bring a friend.
