IAPMO Meeting Thursday October 28, 2010

IAPMO 81st Annual Education and Business Conference

Tom Gugino, Inspections, City of Las Vegas, and Director, International Association of Plumbing and Mechanical Officials, will brief the chapter about the health of our parent organization and its 35% increase in gross revenues, the increase in IAPMO chapters to 67 (highest number ever), and about the successes our codes have had in China and especially India.

Of course Tom will talk about the UPC and UMC codes issues brought up at the convention and what may be coming in the 2012 code cycle.

The lunch has been increased to $20.00, non-members, company employees and guests are always invited, so bring a friend. Just remember to RSVP to Tom Jones by Tuesday, October 26, 2010. If you RSVP and get on Tom's list you get one free raffle ticket.

EduCode has "Plumbing" CEUs

If your plumbing journeyman card is coming due and you have till after February 4, 2011 to get those CEU's why not take an IAPMO chapter class at EduCode? The chapter is offering 44 CEUS in nine separate classes. Help the IAPMO chapter and take a class at EduCode.

Chapter Golf Tournament 15 days from Today's Meeting

We still have some space available for the chapter's first annual, four man scramble, at $175 per person, Friday, November 12, 2010 at the Black Mountains Golf & Country Club, call or email Sherry Hernandez, (702) 247-9862 or pipe@mcalv.com.

IAPMO Installation of Officers Party

Saturday, January 22, 2011 at the Italian American Club "Mariah's Sound Occasion" will be doing the Tiki – will you?

Mark your calendars!
